

Recognition Awards

2018 EDITION

Through its Recognition Program, Vitalité Health Network is proud to recognize employees who stand out at work by bestowing the following merit awards:

VITALITÉ AWARD

This award recognizes an employee who is dedicated to their work; is honest and fair toward the organization, co-workers, and/or patients/clients; is a source of motivation and inspiration; and whose work ethic reflects the six core values of the Network, namely respect, compassion, integrity, accountability, equity, and engagement.

David Thibodeau

Nurse Manager
Edmundston
Regional Hospital

Marie Allard

Executive Secretary
Restigouche
Hospital Centre

Nicole Robichaud

Resource Nurse
St. Joseph Community
Health Centre

Nicole Arsenault

Occupational Therapist
Chaleur Regional Hospital

EXCELLENCE AWARD IN MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP

This award recognizes one of the Network's managers for their excellence in management and leadership.

Brigitte Sonier-Ferguson

Regional Director, Research,
Scientific Development and Training

CREATIVITY AND INNOVATION AWARD

This award recognizes a Network team who, through its creative and innovative work, has successfully developed and implemented a new concept or found an effective and efficient original solution designed to solve a problem or simply improve practices.

NB Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder Centre of Excellence

This working group, comprised of Dr. Nicole LeBlanc (inset photo), Maria DesRoches (community coordinator), Annette Cormier (project manager), Mélissa Bonenfant (administrative assistant), Lisa Gay Taylor (community coordinator), Natacha Landry (community coordinator), Cynthia Sewell (Aboriginal Liaison Officer for First Nations), developed a unique frontline health service delivery model (health determinants unique to First Nations).

SAFETY AWARD

This award recognizes a Network employee who has shown ingenuity and a concern for prevention in their approach to patient/client or employee safety.

Martine Brideau

Resource Nurse
Chaleur Regional Hospital

Congratulations and thank you to these champions!

Thank you also to all those who nominated a co-worker!